MOTION TO COMPEL ATTORNEY TO PRODUCE
CLIENT'S FILE

Comes Now Defendant, prose, and respectfully moves the court to issue an order compelling the Attorney to produce all papers and documents received during his employment as counsel for Defendant in United States OF AMERICA v. Richard Grier, Cause No.
CCB-19-0036 and the other case No. is UNKNOWN to Defendant.

In support of this motion, Defendant alleges and says the following:

1. Attorney Christopher J. Purpura is appointed to represent Mr. Grier.
2. Defendant is in the process of researching and preparing for trial and needs a copy of all papers and documents the...

Attorney received pertaining to Both case(s) during his employment as counsel for Mr. Grier.

3. Defendant has requested a copy of the attorney's case file, but the Attorney has refused to produce the requested file(s).

4. Defendant is incarcerated and indigent, which makes it impossible for him to photocopy the requested file(s) on his own.

5. Defendant is entitled to the file(s) under the authority of Attorney and client privileges.

6. The Attorney has a duty to surrender the requested file(s) under the Rules of Professional Conduct.

7. The Attorney's mailing address is:
